

Asheville's 12th Annual Free Public Witch Ritual

Samhain (Halloween), Tuesday October 31st, from 8 PM - Until at Unity Center in Fletcher (near Asheville), North Carolina

Circle beneath the stars with myriad Southeast Pagans, Witches and townsfolk on four acres of private land at our beloved, family-friendly religious rite!

This year's theme is: Creatures of the Night

Suggested costumes: Witches, Dark Fairies, and Nocturnal animals.
Be daring and creative!

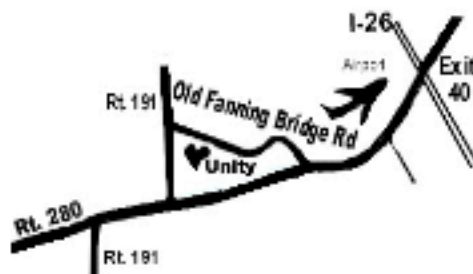

This year's rite features: A maze trance dance, tribal music, costume contest (win magical prizes!), frenetic finale Spiral Dance, Poi fire-spinning on stage, harp music around the balefires, and the many surprises you've come to expect!

Parents -- Kids ages 3 & up will be entertained in the Pavilion with "Bat bowling", Candy Corn Relay races, Pumpkin Ring Toss, and other traditional autumn games!

Diviners -- Bring your tools to give free readings for attendees.

Event sponsors and volunteer helpers receive numerous perks, so e-mail or phone Lady Passion for details at: oldenwilde@aol.com or (828) 251-0343

For directions and more info: www.oldenwilde.org

Pagan rites are protected by law: It's Illegal to Disrupt a Religious Ritual
(NCGS 14-288.4(a)(7))

